Last December 23, GMCAC, together with Rotaract South Cebu Alumni, Rotary Club of Mactan, Balik Aral Inc., Eyrie Foundation, and Jollibee, launched the 3-month CSR Nutrition Program dubbed as Gasa sa Kalinasing (Gift of Nutrition). Held at Soong Elementary School, about 100 undernourished children received nutrition starter packs and will continue to be monitored for weight-gain for the next three months.

GMCAC supported Balik Cebu (Return to Cebu), an annual program of the Cebu Provincial Tourism Office and the Cebu City Tourism Office that encourages Filipinos abroad to come home for the Sinulog Festival. The balikbayans mostly from US and Canada were welcomed in the airport arrival area.

Connect in Cebu, win a phone! Passengers transiting via Mactan Cebu Airport to and from their domestic and international flights have a chance to win 1 of 3 Samsung smartphones. A passenger can earn a raffle ticket by just presenting their boarding passes at the Departure level after final x-ray check. The promo will run from January 15 to February 14, 2018.

Mactan Cebu International Airport is one with the community in celebrating the Sinulog Festival. The airport hosted a Sinulog dance contest open to all groups and stakeholders. The Nemesian Dance Theater won 1st Place in the Street Dance and Colorful Contingent categories, taking home Php 100,000. Babog Dance Company took home the award for Festival Queen.
